RE: ACCION SINDICAL INDEPENDIENTE (ASI)
(INDEPENDENT LABOR ACTION)
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

JUNTA CUBANA REVOLUCIONARIA (JCR)
(CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY BOARD)
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

Previous investigation has reflected that the Accion Sindical Independiente (ASI) is the labor group of the Junta Cubana Revolucionaria (JCR). The ASI is headquartered in Miami and the JCR in New York City. CONRADO RODRIGUEZ SANCHEZ, a Cuban exile and former labor leader in Cuba, now residing in Miami, represents both of these organizations in Miami. The membership is composed of Cuban exiles residing in Miami and the New York area.

Previous investigation also disclosed that in October, 1971, RODRIGUEZ allegedly had plans to blow up diplomatic establishments of countries which maintained relations with Cuba and he was accumulating the explosives for that purpose. These plans, however, never materialized.

On April 10, 1972, MM T-1, who is well acquainted with many Cuban exiles in the Miami area, reported that RODRIGUEZ was looking for some C-4 plastic explosives during the preceding week or 10 days.

On May 26, 1972, MM T-1 advised that RODRIGUEZ met with leaders of several other groups several days previously to discuss the possibility of organizing some sort of anti-CASTRO sabotage program to be carried out outside the United States. Among those attending this meeting were MIGUEL and JUANA ISA, publishers of a small newspaper called "Joven Cuba", JESUS GONZALEZ CARTAS of the organization Joven Cuba; MIGUEL SAN PEDRO of the

"If the U. S. abandons Cuba and betrays the principles of anti-Communism, the Veterans of Fort Jackson would react with violence.

"RODRIGUEZ stated that his group has no quarrels with other anti-Communist groups, only with FIDEL CASTRO and his followers. If the groups fail to work with the Comité Ejecutivo Libertador, one should ask TOMAS CRUZ for the answers.

"ISRAEL PINO stated that the Cubans who become involved in local politics are no longer exiles, but economic immigrants. They are Americans, not Cubans." (All of the organizations mentioned above are anti-CASTRO Cuban exile groups).

On December 8, 1972, MM T-3, who is acquainted with some members of the ASI advised that CONRADO RODRIGUEZ disclosed that he had attended a meeting held in New York City on November 24 and 25, 1972 with the delegates of the ASI and JCR. At that time, there was a discussion concerning action, which would be taken by these two organization in the event the United States should sign any kind of a peaceful coexistence agreement with FIDEL CASTRO of Cuba. RODRIGUEZ disclosed that it was agreed that these organizations would initiate terrorist activities inside the United States. He pointed out that the principal targets would be ships belonging to countries that would trade with Cuba. Other targets would be diplomatic establishments of countries that maintain relation with CASTRO. He said that these organizations would avoid attacks against American ships or establishments in order to avoid prosecution by United States security agencies. He commented that his organization has men in New York, New Jersey, Miami and Washington, D. C., as well as in California, who can be used in these terrorist activities. He claimed that complete preparations have been made and these men are only awaiting orders to begin this campaign.

MM T-3 stated that RODRIGUEZ definitely indicated that this campaign of terror would only take place in the event the United States should sign a peaceful coexistence agreement with the CASTRO Government.

On December 20, 1972, MM T-3 advised that he had received no additional information reflecting that RODRIGUEZ has taken any steps to carry out his plans. MM T-3 recalled, however, that in about December, 1971, RODRIGUEZ disclosed that he had three "lapiceros", (an M-1 time delayed device used to detonate a bomb), and that he needed some C-4. RODRIGUEZ then added that he already had some dynamite and a clock.
